Forms and Instructions to Become a Probate Guardian

Here's what you need to do:

- Read the attached manual, How to Become a Probate Guardian of a Child in San Francisco. It explains the court process and how to fill out your court forms.
- Fill out the attached forms. There are 2 sets of forms in this packet. One set is blank and the other set has 'help bubbles' on each page to guide you.
  - O Petition for Appointment of Guardian, GC-210
  - Declaration of Proposed Guardian, PGF-1
  - O Declaration Under Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, FL-105/GC-120
  - O Notice of Hearing, GC-020
  - O Confidential Guardian Screening Form, GC-212
  - O Duties of Guardian, GC-248
  - O Consent of Proposed Guardian, Nomination of Guardian and Waiver of Notice, GC-211
  - Order Appointing Guardian of Child, GC-240
  - O Letters of Guardianship, GC-250
  - Proof of Service, 982(a)(23)
  - Background Check
- If you can't afford to pay the court filing fee, fill out these forms, too:
  - O Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Costs
  - Order on Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Costs
- If it's impossible to notify parents or other relatives, you may need these forms, too:
  - O Request and Order to Mail Notice, PGF-2
  - O Request to Excuse Notice, PGF-3
- Make an appointment with a Probate paralegal:

415-551-3650

The Paralegal will tell you more about the court process and what you have to do next. Do not file your forms until the Paralegal checks them.
